Filed: March 19, 2021

Special Processing Unit (SPU);
Mathematical Error; Post Judgment
Relief; Attorney's Fees and Costs

Jessica Anne Olins, Maglio Christopher & Toale, PA, Seattle, WA, for Petitioner.

Heather Lynn Pearlman, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On January 15, 2019, Galia Greenberg filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"), alleging that she suffered a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration after receiving an influenza vaccine on October 25, 2016. Petition at 2. On October 15, 2020, I issued a decision awarding damages to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. ECF No. 32. A few weeks later, on October 30, 2020, I awarded Petitioner $ 19,716.61 in attorney's fees and costs. ECF No. 39.

¹ Because this unpublished Decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, I am required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the Decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), Petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On December 2, 2020, Petitioner filed a motion for post-judgment relief seeking correction of the mistaken overpayment of $1.00 in attorney's fees and costs. ECF No. 45. For the reasons stated below, I hereby grant Petitioner's motion, amending the prior judgment to account for this overpayment by refunding the additional $1.00 in attorney's fees and costs to Respondent.

I. Petitioner's Motion for Post-Judgment Relief

Petitioner filed her motion for post-judgment relief pursuant to Rule 60(a) of the Rules of the United State Court of Federal Claims ("RCFC"). Motion for Post-Judgement Relief ("Motion") at 1. She acknowledged that her motion for attorney's fees and costs contained "an erroneous calculation in excess of $1." Id. at ¶ 1. The motion for attorney's fees and costs correctly listed the subtotals of $19,075.80 for attorney's fees and $639.81 for attorney's costs, but incorrectly listed the total amount as $19,716.61. ECF No. 36. The correct total should have been $19,715.61. The incorrect total was included in the Fee Decision issued on October 30, 2020 and the Judgment entered on November 3, 2020. ECF Nos. 39, 41.

Respondent did not file a response. However, Petitioner indicated Respondent had been informed of the error. Motion at ¶ 7.

II. Legal Standard

Vaccine Rule 36(a) allows a party to obtain relief from judgment in two ways: either by filing a motion for reconsideration pursuant to RCFC 59, or by seeking relief from judgment pursuant to RCFC 60. If the case was assigned to a judge for review, the motion will be referred to the same judge. Vaccine Rule 36(a)(1). Otherwise, the motion will be referred to the special master assigned to the case. Vaccine Rule 36(a)(2).³

In determining whether a judgment should be set aside or altered, "the need for finality of judgments" must be balanced against "the importance of ensuring that litigants have a full and fair opportunity to litigate." Kennedy v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 99 Fed. Cl. 535, 539 (2011) (citing United Student Aid Funds, Inc. v. Espinosa, 559 U.S. 260, 276 (2010); see also Bridgham by Libby v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 33 Fed. Cl. 101, 104 (1995) (discussing the "tension between the goals of ensuring that the court's judgment appropriately reflects the adjudication of the parties' rights and of providing the parties with certainty as to those rights").

³ This sharing of authority over judgments between judge and special master was determined to be appropriate, since Vaccine Rule 36 allows for immediate review of the special master's ruling. Vessels v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 65 Fed. Cl. 563, 568 (2005).

Pursuant to RCFC 60(a), a court may correct “[c]lerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record” at any time. Additionally, a party may request relief from final judgment for the specific reasons listed in RCFC 60(b)(1)-(5) or the “catch all” provision at RCFC 60(b)(6). Similar to RCFC 60(a), RCFC 60(b)(1) allows post judgment relief for “mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect.” I have previously discussed the differences between RCFC 60(a) and RCFC 60(b)(1) in Williamsen v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., No. 10-0223V, 2014 WL 1388894 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Feb. 5, 2014).

III. Appropriate Amount of Fees Awarded

Petitioner is seeking post-judgment relief pursuant to RCFC 60(a). I agree that RCFC 60(a) is the subsection most applicable to the circumstances in this case, and that the error previously made in the Fee Decision and Judgment should be corrected.

Accordingly, I GRANT Petitioner’s request and direct the Clerk of Court to issue judgment in favor of Respondent to include the following information:

A lump sum payment of $1.00 to reimburse Respondent for the mistaken overpayment. The check should be made payable to:

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
Memo: Galia Greenberg, Case No. 19-0075V

The check should be sent to:

Ms. Cheryl Lee
Division of Vaccine Injury Compensation/HRSA
5600 Fishers Lane, Mail Stop 08N194B
Rockville, MD 20857

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

⁴ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties may expedite entry of judgment by filing a joint notice renouncing their right to seek review.
